

Development Partners & Management International Ltd.: Providers of Award Winning Project Management Training

Development Partners and Management (DPM) International copped three prestigious awards at the Project Management Institute Jamaica Doctor Bird Chapter (PMIJDBC) Awards Breakfast held on November 5, 2009. DPM was specially awarded for its Sterling Contribution to Project Management in Jamaica. In making the presentation to DPM International, Mr. Cecil White, President of the Chapter, noted that the “PMIJDBC has found a great partner in DPM International” who has provided them with Project Management curriculum which facilitates the PMI-JDBC's professional development thrust.”

DPM International is Jamaica’s foremost provider of project management training and Jamaica’s only PMI Global Registered Education Provider (REP). This status has enabled the organization to issue Professional Development Units (PDU’s) and qualifying training hours for PMI Certification exams. Since 2007 DPM International has revolutionised the project management arena, by developing curricula that are aligned with the PMI® global standards.

Commenting on the awards, which took place at the Knutsford Court Hotel in commemoration of International Project Management Day, Mrs. Sherrone Lobban, CEO, DPM International said, "It’s a wonderful feeling to be recognized by your peers, it is also good when it’s for something you love doing and is committed to; DPM believes in the social and economic development of Jamaica, through well planned, managed and executed projects. Our training courses are designed mainly with the participants in mind - ensuring that, as many persons as possible are equipped with the skills to be good project team members and managers. I congratulate DPM’s hard working team for a job well done. We wish to express our gratitude to our partners, our clients and the PMIJDBC for a productive year. “

Guest Speaker, Mr. Milton Samuda, President of the Jamaica Chamber of Commerce, noted that Jamaica needs good project management to take it out of its current economic, moral and social crisis. He encouraged project managers to use their skills to help Jamaica, which he describes as a 'big project'

Mr. Carlton Brown, Director of Project Management Services, DPM International, received the award for Volunteer of the Year; while, Mr. John Lobban member of the Board of Directors was honoured for being the Most Effective Chapter Officer.

-30-

Contact: Sherrone Lobban
info@dpminternational.com
www.dpminternational.com
+876 7543764