

PROJECT MANAGEMENT STAFF PLACEMENT SERVICE

The failure or success of any project is largely dependent upon the skill of the project manager. A good project manager or subject matter expert must have expert knowledge of project management methods as well as the ability to navigate organisational cultures.

If you do not have the time, resources and or expertise to identify suitable project managers DPM International can assist you to find highly skilled project managers for permanent and temporary positions. With the DPM Project Staff Placement Service you are guaranteed to get fully qualified candidates with the right skill sets. We offer:

For Employers

- Job Descriptions and Terms of References
- A validation of your job specifications
- Quality project management candidates
- Sourcing, screening and interviewing of candidates
- A pool of candidates with the right skills to meet company needs
- A debriefing of each candidate
- Feedback from the candidates

For Job Seekers/Consultants

- Placement is absolutely FREE to Job seekers/Consultants
- CV review and customisation

The DPM International Advantage:

1. We are Jamaica's foremost project management training and consulting firm
2. We have a large network of trained and certified project managers and project team members
3. We leverage our knowledge and expertise in project management to find you the best candidates
4. We leverage our knowledge of the global project & development industry to identify opportunities
5. We can source project staff in every discipline including IT, Communications, Construction, Engineering, Marketing, Research, and Socio-Economic development projects.
6. We will source project human resources with credentials from leading accreditations bodies such as the Project Management Institute (PMI) and Prince2.

Affordable and Flexible Pricing Packages Available

We offer on demand/just in time placement services. Employers and employees can take comfort in knowing that we provide all project management staffing needs. Contact us for a quote and to discuss your project management staffing needs

